To Whom It May Concern,

With great pride I recommend the services of RJI Insurance Group. RJI Insurance Group has faithfully provided our company with all of our insurance needs since 2012. Their commitment to understanding our business insurance needs, providing exceptional customer service and continually striving to provide competitive rates has been greatly beneficial to my Company.

RJI's Owner, Rob Ludwig, has become a trusted and valued partner. His in depth evaluation of our insurance needs and value added services have proven invaluable to us for managing our fleet/auto, general liability, workers compensation, transportation and pollution/environmental insurance needs. His team is extremely customer focused and responds to our requests in a timely manner.

I strongly recommend the services of RJI Insurance Group for your Environmental, Industrial, and Transportation needs. I look forward to working with Rob and his team for years to come. Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,
